WHO AM I?

My name is Jean Thomason, also known as the joyful children's character, Miss PattyCake. The music and character of Miss PattyCake allows her to plant biblical truths, broken into musical child-size pieces, while helping equip parents to lay a spiritual foundation. I have spent more than 25 years singing and dancing with kids from all around the world. Since 1994, I have worked in children's ministry and recently authored a book for parents, grandparents and teachers called, "Sharing God's BIG Love with Little Lives."

Miss Patty Cake™

WHY THIS GUIDE?

I understand the challenge in finding age-appropriate learning and entertainment for our little ones, and your computer, phone or tablet can be the easy "go to" to keep them occupied. If you are looking for content that is biblically based, educational and FUN ... Cheer up! There is a bigger selection than you may know about. This guide is certainly not comprehensive, but these are the ones I know and can recommend with full confidence. By downloading this guide you are being INTENTIONAL and taking seriously your role as parent/grandparent/teacher. Be careful before you put a screen in your child's hand. When you allow your children to watch, YOU choose what they watch.

WHAT'S IN THE GUIDE?

This guide will provide you with a list of kid-friendly faith-based media. To read more about each resource, just click on the name to go on to their website. You can also utilize the Quick Click Guide at the end of this media guide as an easy way to access each of the resources. Most of this is not free because it takes a lot of money to create music and video. By spending a little money, you are helping content creators and ministries create MORE!
